OUR HISTORY

A Legacy since 1733

In the historic center of Haro, the wine capital of La Rioja, stands Palacio Manzanos, an elegant 18th-century manor.

Built in 1733, during a time of great economic prosperity in Haro, the palace represents one of the finest examples of noble civil architecture in the region.

Its imposing ashlar stone facade, organized in three levels with classical cornices, reflects the refinement of the urban Riojan aristocracy.

Today, carefully restored, the palace revives as a space where history, the art of living and wine culture come together.
